

There are two studies that I am aware of that are underway to determine the impact to the radio spectrum as a result of BPL.

The interference issue needs to be taken seriously, there are alternatives that will provide high speed service but not at the expense of harmful interference to various portions of the radio spectrum.

I do not support BPL at all.

Jim